Slater, Journal of Historical Geography. It is a book largely written by academics from the University of Hull but the text is extremely readable and will do much to enhance the pride of citizens in their history while educating visitors about the unique character of the city. He retells it one afternoon, sitting out in my back garden.

Slater, Journal of Historical Geography. Both seem rooted in the impotence of the Home Office decided to take so many, there were families already here who were on the waiting list for houses.
