In this first book of the series, Allie learns that her family will be moving. One reason I really liked this book was, because all the good rules she has for girls who problems like. Then Allie's best friend was so mad that she was now okay with Allie moving. She wants to be a better person so she starts to make her book of rules.

Allie finds out from the kid next door that the house is very scary. And one of Allie's already new that I was getting it because I was with my mom at the book fair. It was a interesting book.
