The best way to model the faith is through a consistently open and honest lifestyle. What is an Egalitarian? Both were active in their high school, received good grades, had lots of friends, made commitments to Christ at the same age, and attended the same church. This book is for people like me. Train your young people to teach the lesson or share their faith in the youth group. But what you are doing is so important. They are learning that worship is important. How can you develop a stronger sense of involvement in your youth? I watch you cringe when your little girl asks an innocent question in a voice that might not be an inside voice let alone a church whisper.
