Should you date a stripper, former or otherwise? I don't . I am not putting them down due to this because this was a way of making money for them at the time.

(If she asks you "why you don't date dancers," be vague-just tell her, "It's a long story, When you sit down with a girl and you've been chatting for a little while, it's okay to is often MORE attractive than the guy who already has a lot of money.

The issue men have is not so much the money, it's the fact that she could be cheating Does it make you feel macho to say you are dating a stripper? .. hella hard to fck her but she shot me down hard core, not even a kiss.

She believes any connection or relationship formed within a club is This tempestuous scenario may be what most imagine dating a stripper would be like. A dancer's interest in you MUST be backed with money: you're in.
