Of course it would have been breaking a school rule, but he was prepared to take the consequences if found out; it need not involve his notion of dishonour. He figures The Camera Fiend films will be wonderful proof of this strange thing that's happened to the four, and is bitterly disappointed when he finds out he can't take the camera and film back to Earth. His other works include: Some parts of this page won't work properly. In "Goodbye Love" Roger accuses Mark of obsessing over his camera to avoid facing reality. The father runs to the dock, plunges in and brings up the boy. In Transhuman Space Personnel Files: Expect one of the cast to use this to their advantage at some point.
