It's just that if you're in certain groups, it's almost like the odds are higher. Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother should be necessary reading for anyone who has a Chinese mother. She pushes her daughters to be the best at everything, because if you're not the best then you're garbage a term she uses for one of her young daughters.

the newspaper article was written tongue in cheek something a lot of people seemed to have gloss over it left out some important elements that are present in the book. She says it is a tough world out there and Western parents are too soft with their children, allowing them to waste precious hours in front of the TV, playing video games.
