Countering Sectarianism with Unifying Institutions 8. Kaplan argues that Professorial Lecturer, Paul H. For we Africans, tired of being told to emulate Western models of governance, this book is a breath of fresh air.

Kaplan is a Professorial Lecturer in the Paul H. Fixing Fragile States lays bare the fatal flaws in current policies and explains why the only way to give these places a chance at peace and prosperity is to rethink how development really works. The combination of weak social cohesion and feeble state institutions creates problems that are not amenable to the types of solutions – more aid, competitive elections and economic reform – typically advocated by the international community.
