He should have made sure everything was out in the open. He is far too protective of those he cares about and he is just looking for someone he can truly be himself with—someone who wants him for him and doesn't want to try to change. So, before you start getting all hot and bothered with thoughts of the luscious Lucien Knight, I must start by explaining that this book is all about Dylan day and Kara Writinggoodlovescenesthatkeepsthereaderinterestedthroughoutawhole Don't run away from love because of what I did. I found myself so excited about their portion of the story that at times I actually felt like Kara and Dylan's story was intruding! I have been gripped by this series and this instalment is once again revealing yet suspenseful enough to keep me totally fascinated as to how this I all going to end.
