Stories of similar waters were also evidently prominent among the indigenous peoples of the Caribbean during the Age of Exploration early 16th century who spoke of the restorative powers of the water in the mythical land of Bimini. Herrera makes that connection definite in the romanticized version of Fontaneda's story included in his Historia general de los hechos de los Castellanos en las islas y tierra firme del Mar Oceano. A story of the "Water of Life" appears in the Eastern versions The Fountain Of Youth the Alexander romance which describes Alexander the Great and his servant crossing the Land of Darkness to find the restorative spring.
