And that is the end of Gone Girl. Scott Takeda as Producer. Which brings me to Amy. One thing is clear, Nick and Amy's marriage wasn't as perfect as everybody thought. I forgot to mention that I have a perfect figure and everybody wants to be my friend. Amy is that special kind of snowflake who isn't nearly as smart as she thinks she is as there are people who see through her bullshit, but since she's a master manipulator Gone Girl liar she is able to fool most rubes without the slightest question because she's Gone Girl so sweet and above it all.

Gone Girl was on my list of books to buy for close to a year before it was released. I view Nick as her ideal husband in the end because she knows he's Gone Girl's ideal husband, permanently, due to her blackmail and the risk of public condemnation. Sensitive readers should proceed with caution.
