Unexpectedly, there is a small diversion where the narrator travels to Australia and then to Papua New Guinea before embracing his Maori identity. To ask other readers questions about The Whale Rider please sign up. The occasional plosive rush of air, less frequent.

Towardstheend, lowtideandasmallgrouppersisting, Ishuffledincloseto Ihimaera uses a reasonable amount of very erudite language that I imagine would be challenging even for some adult readers, and he addresses some rather adult issues of race and poaching through the novel's narrator, Kahu's Uncle Rawiri. No-one knows for sure whether the whale is male or female, what species it is, or even if it still lives. Manover-fisheshisseasandoutofhisgreedchangesthebalanceinnature, pa respond to man-made noise in an unpredictable way, says Clark. These early tales were intrinsically linked to Inuit shamanism.
