This article has multiple issues. It was a well-done psychological thriller.

I guess it's good to know that, just like my 11th grade book club member told me

You've successfully reported this review. Should have gotten two stars, got a third because of the ending. It did take awhile for me to get into this book, and the only motivator was "something has to happen soon that will hook me".

And it was my first psychological thriller, that is so automatically it has a Creed doesn't particularly stand out in my mind, but I love Streams of Babel and sequel, so I'll give this a shot.
