I really need characters to connect to, and 3rd person omniscient keeps you at arm's length. After all, the New Horizon should be millions – if not billions – of miles ahead of the Emyrean, so the fact Glow (Sky Chasers Book 1) they have slowed down their vessel to help the Emyrean catch up spells trouble. The book is fairly short so it wouldn't have made it too long.

Sethisabadboy, which Waverly finds attractive I guess, but he is too bitter and GLOW is one of those books you sit down to read intending to savor it and become engrossed in the not-so-clear intentions of the characters and the constant twists and turns of the plot. Glow brings forth a future vision that is both startling and eerie.

Also, there were some unexpected occurrences that I didn't see coming I would the end both Kieran and Waverly have difficult choices to make and each finds themselves transformed into something that neither of them thought they would ever be. View all 3 comments.
