Fear By Bob Woodward. Or, at least, that is how I remember it. The signalman still seem to be in fear of the narrator, who tries to put him at ease. The next day, as directed by the signalman, the narrator returns and does not. But I'll get to that one in a min. Books by Charles Dickens. I love ghost stories. It pains me to give a lower rating to Dickens, but the second story, The Haunted House was so utterly bizarre that I could make neither heads nor tails of it. Definitely not one of Dickens best, but so much better than The Haunted House.
