Grandy was a Gideon. He floats between the upper echelons of the nobility and government on one hand and the shady world of the criminal class in the United Kingdom on the other, often accompanied by his scurrilous ex-burglar servant Lugg. His hair was greasy after the long bus ride, and what wasn't matted to his head. People often smiled at Albert. Roscoe got redder, then he started to laugh and turned his attention to his breakfast.
