Well written, some coolly constructed sentences, a smoothly flowing narrative, decent build up of social contexts and politics of the time. But I still recommend this book as the characters are very rich and full of depth, an excellent story and steamy romance. If I implied otherwise, forgive me.

MyWishlist0ItemYouhavejustadded: Simon's past is a shadowy, cruel tale for much of the story. A Game of Thrones Set: Contactustoplacetheyourrequest. In this book there is even no mentioning about heroine attending School for Heiresses.
