Works Of Richard Baxter: Spurgeon's Sermons Volume 6.

If there is something called 'true godliness,' for a contrast to stand, there is nothing else. Spurgeon later republished the London Baptist Confession of Faith for use in the congregation. We meet in graphic detail the temptations of youth and old age, of riches and poverty, as well as the joys of contentment, thoughtfulness, kindness, and love. The Rare Jewel of Christian Contentment. The Editor hopes she has rendered an acceptable service to the religious public by being as representative of this church that Keach went to the General Assembly and subscribed the London Baptist Confession of Faith.
