Get to Know Us. I recommend to start by the Encyclopedia definition at the end of this book. He later became one of the leading theorists of anarchism. Forced to flee his homeland in the 1830s to avoid arrest for his revolutionary activities against the czarist government, the noted geographer and social philosopher lived in exile, mainly in England, for the next 42 years of his life. The same teachings are daily repeated in the Press. In spite of being around 100 years old, you can find some parts in his texts which are still relevant. Reviews Most recent Top Reviews.
