Just as the sound of the rooster crowing was the tell-tale message to Peter of his fall, it is interesting that Peter uses the imagery of a roaring lion to describe how the devil seeks to devour us. So they gravitate towards strong preaching on holiness and repentance. While we find this behaviour funny and entertaining in cats, I wondered if we too might be exhibiting the same tendencies when it comes to the illusions that seem so real to us. Many of us are afraid of God because we think that He is out to hurt us or play spoils politics. I rated it liked it Oct 16, There would simply be no harvest if the oxen didn't obey me.
