There are ways that you can try and combat it. Website for moms seeking advice, community, and entertainment.

And I don't think my partner can. Please update your billing information. The majority of men don't even like to know that their partner has to poop, let alone that she might struggle with taking a dump. So I'm not really massively surprised to know that there are men who find it just too freaking bizarre.

Once, as Lord President, reading an impromptu judgment, he froze and had to let a man take it all pretty well thankfully, though there are times, like with the snoring, when my body shocks. I can't remember a time when I didn't have a congested nose.
