The novel begins by showing Jake Sullivan as going on a working vacation to the Virgin Islands. The best thing this book has going for it is its catchy title, though the effort to build a premise for it in the story is half-hearted at best. Can't wait to start the next one in the series. It's a semi-decent first draft that hasn't been edited. All the books in this intriguing novel series feature the main protagonist in the form of a chief prosecuting attorney named Jake Sullivan.
