Accompanying Father Koesler on this comic and fast-moving adventure is young Father Dunn who is staying with him, while taking some university psychology courses. Shadow of death by William X Kienzle Book 13 editions published between and in English and held by 1, WorldCat member libraries worldwide A mystery writers' conference gets a dose of real-life crime when the featured speaker, the wildly unpopular Reverend Klaus Krieg, is killed, and Father Koesler must enlist the aid of Alonzo "Zoo" Tully to catch a killer.

There Koesler finds out more than he cares to know of the machinations of ambitious Andrews McMeel added it Aug 27, I think if there weren't a Catholic Church, somebody would have to invent it. When halfway through the service the man comes alive and news of it reaches the bishop, the priest is called on the carpet for officiating for a Jew.

What I knew best was Catholicism and the priests and nuns who populated that faith was certain that no one, with the possible exception of hierarchical bureaucrats, would miss it. He subsequently married copy-editor Javan, to whom he'd announced his love a year before he left the priesthood but he insisted this wasn't the reason he left.
