Keith has just arrived at Sarah's home in Hove and they're clearly delighted by the prospect of the next few days. People with AS normally have above-average intelligence but great difficulties with empathy, communication and social interaction.

Despite meeting five years ago, they won't progress as other couples. Currently, although there's only a year between them, at 39 Keith is so gangly, gawky, boyish and cute that he could be ten years younger than he is. Louise Corbett manages the National Autistic Society NAS helpline and confirms that more calls are coming from couples who have recognised Asperger's in their relationship. They reside in Brisbane, Australia, in which Tony uses part of his home as his clinic to see families. Home About Aspergers: What is Asperger's? There's no way around it: Her surveys and questionnaires from the past decade suggest that 75 per cent of such couples seek counselling.
