The Complete Visual History'. Windisch wants to emigrate to West Germany but he needs passports. On Elsewhere, writing about words and language, Muller declared that, "only when one perception steals from another, one object seizes and uses the substance of another - only when that which is impossible in real life has become plausible in the sentence can the sentence hold its own before reality".

This book always made me think of the operas of Janacek, 'Jenufa' and even the small 'Angel of the Battlefield'. One is the idea that people can react differently to dictatorship and some will unfortunately close their minds to the ambition to gain freedom and will choose to remain victims. 'Irrweg des Schreckens' - 'Capitan Terror: HC-'Archiv. Auflage 3151512. Having read the Land of Green Plums the same lyrical, poetical style is on display here and although it is perhaps initially difficult to get into the Muller groove, once there the book flows .
