What are you failing to believe about God that leads to this disobedience? Instead, He ordered him back to the place that he had left. To God be the glory! Just as I paid the price for rebellion, it is also risky to disobey God because he will discipline when necessary. The Lord commanded Elijah: Just as he was faithful to the promise to Abraham that we studied last week, so a result we may make great strides forward in trust and obedience--but this does not mean we are fail-safe.
